I'll walk you through the 13 best fake eyelashes for different types, styles, plus a tutorial on how to apply false lashes for beginners, and how to make them look natural,

Best False Lashes for every day

What I liked about these lashes is that they have a clear band but thick enough to handle the 3D and 5D effect that it has.

However, it's worth noting that the term "5D" is not a standardized industry definition, and its meaning can vary between different brands and manufacturers.

Pro tip: After using your lashes soak them in makeup remover and gently remove the glue and mascara of it, after that take a spully and shape them and place them again in their package to maintain the curved shape properly.

When you are starting with eyelashes, you don't know exactly how they will look on your eye, and like everything with makeup, you need some actual practice to get it perfectly.

Tip 3. Apply a small coat of Mascara (but remember to clean your false lashes after) Tj T* BT /
