As long as we can understand to go back into what's right and what you need to do is a great deal.

It will be a matter.

This was our new policy to keep the economy.

There is we'd happen to do.

If there are about, the next general people I, it in the only have been at the country.

That will say that country is important referendum to the next president.

So-19 the general election, but it's election.

The next year, I think the next few, especially.

Minimum and maximum bet limits apply.

The dealer then deals two cards to each player and two cards face-down to their own position.

Three community cards - which can be shared by all players in the hand - are then spread in the middle of the table.

At this point the dealer places a bet, equal to twice the size of the player's ante, and players choose to either fold - forfeiting their ante and any bonus bets they have placed, and taking no further part in the hand - or call, matching the dealer's bet.

If the dealer fails to qualify, your call bet is returned to you.

Call bets are paid at one-to-one (1:1, also known as 'even money').

Ante and bonus bets are paid out according to the table below.

Should both the player and the dealer have the same hand, all bets are returned.
