At the beginning of the game, players place a bet on either the Player, Banker, or Tie space on the table.

The payout for the Tie space is 9 to 1 or 8 to 1 depending on the casino.

Whoever scores closest to 9 wins.

If Banker's hand wins, anyone who bet on the Banker space wins the payout.

If Player's score is 0 to 5, they receive a third card.

The value of the third card is added to their score.

If either Banker or Player has a score of 8 or 9, both hands stand and no addit ional cards are dealt.

If you want to learn how to draw a third card for another chance at winning, ke

Several examples have shown that a bookie set up shop collected a significant am ount of deposits and then used absurd excuses not to payout.

The next step for the brains behind that scheme was to set up another betting s ite and go all over again.

While credit/debit cards, bank transfers and vouchers are considered standard, some old-school bookmakers are restrictive with wallets.

Customer service in social media has quickly gained popularity among players.
