Online gambling's legal status in California

However, these propositions do not include online casino gambling, so Golden State bettors will need to wait a little longer before they can stake real money on casino games.

The gambling age in California

However, while you can legally wager at a casino from 18 onwards, many casinos ban anyone under 21 from entering the premises.

All earnings under $5,000 are subject to a flat 24% tax.

You'll need to register your winnings on an IRS Form 1040 and any itemized losses.

Unlike real online casinos, free sites don't require a state-approved license to operate in the US.

To guarantee safety, these casinos are regulated by customer protection groups and external testing agencies like eCOGRA.
