Many tend to place the same bets repeatedly, while others follow the same routine or pattern, perhaps employing one of the well-known betting strategies.

Roulette green payout

With this rather unfortunate turn of events in mind, some players religiously place a bet on zero, reasoning that they will at least reap some rewards while everyone else loses their shirt.

Just like every other number you can bet on individually 1 to 36 it will come up rarely.

It's like a poker player moaning about bad beats they forget all the times they inflict bad beats on others.

Why is there a zero on roulette?

It's the zero that gives the casino a house edge.

You are getting an 18/37 shot.

[Image] Promising review: "These earbuds are really good for the money.

I can't hear my phone while I'm trying to work or school.

The noise-cancelling functions are great too.

I can use it for both my headphones and my phone for when I want to listen to music.

I highly recommend this product.

A wireless noise-cancelling earbud for those who want to stay home and avoid paying hundreds of dollars for a pair of headphones with noise cancellation.
