and China LotSynergy Enterprises Ltd.

Among the issues raised by the PCSO's legal department was the alleged failu re to follow due process as a public-private partnership project with a private sector joint venture partner.

As a PPP deal, the National Economic Development Authority must approve the pro ject.

The OGCC also noted that the PCSO confirmed that Pinili had signed a supposed &q uot;duly executed" contract with the joint venture.
