1 KickForm.
Our KickForm page is a free-to-use platform providing exclusive, scientifically backed predictions, odds, and statistics on the biggest football competitions. The live score feature gives you incredible in-depth data and live match statistics throughout the game.

Players are given the same treatment with most aspects of their games being tracked, including attempted dribbles, fouls, passes, long balls, as well as position on specific stats such as clearances, saves, punches and many, many, more.

One of the most important attributes of the site is that it shows the club's form, as well as the formation used during the game.

A term often used in football is 'fitting square pegs into round holes', which means playing a player out of position.

As a whole however, it is one of the best football stats websites out there due to its user-friendly layout and the sheer number of in-depth stats available from leagues all across the world.

Using the proper tools will give yourself the best chance of generating a long term profit and beat the bookies at the same time.
